Starting in October, at the Stuart location, a grocery cart will be placed outside the Sanctuary on Sunday. This cart is to collect food donations and when it is full Carol Heiss brings it to House of Hope.

We have a lot of hungry people in Martin County and Immanuel helps with the soup kitchen but food is needed every day so if you can help please help fill the grocery cart.

And don't forget we have the Salvation Army bin in the Palm City office. Donations go to either the Salvation Army or House of Hope.
